BOOKS FOR BOOTS (B4B) partners with selected authors and publishers. Authors donate their royalties and publishers donate books. Books go to veterans in hospital. The donated money goes to VA hospitals where it is used to meet unexpected personal needs of the hospitalized veterans. This can include helping families making a bedside visit. This program, launched in June of 2007, is part of a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation founded in 1984. The corporate name is Little Acorns Children & Family Programs, Inc., EIN 59-1836063

NATIONAL DIRECTOR

Rick Gelinas, PhD, retired psychotherapist, co-founder with wife Linda of Books for Boots (B4B), 863-298-8748. To see his profile, at home page click on WHO IS RICK GELINAS?

HISTORY

Little Acorns was conceived to operate a drug prevention family training program (free) in elementary schools of the Miami Fla area. This drug program was closed in 2002 when Dr. Gelinas and his wife Linda, a school teacher, "retired" (or so they intended) to Winter Haven, far from Miami, in central Florida. Little Acorns now serves exclusively as the nonprofit carrier of the Books for Boots (B4B) program.

DISCLAIMER

While the word "Acorns" does appear in our complete nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporate name, "Little Acorns Children & Family Programs, Inc.," we have no affiliation with the group calling itself just "Acorns" and appearing often in the news for having problems.

MORE WAYS TO PARTNER WITH BOOKS FOR BOOTS

On behalf of Books for Boots, Little Acorns Inc, accepts tax-deductible gifts and grants to further the B4B mission. Gifts may include cash or merchandise. One good way to help is through our booksignings. Would you like to sponsor a booksigning for your group or your company? It doesn't cost you any cash. You just invite all your good people to our next Books for Boots event.

We arrange everything, including media coverage and (free) gourmet food, beverages, live music and door prizes. Attendance is free, can be exclusive/limited, and no one is obliged to buy the novel(s) we sell to raise money for helping wounded war heroes. Do you have a retail product or service? Examples: groceries, gasoline, hotel. Give us discount coupons to help our sale of novel(s). We'll give your coupon to everyone who buys our novel(s). This can be great publicity for you.

Any other ideas? We'd love to hear from you: 863-298-8748. Rick@booksforboots.ORG
